

GodStuff Youth Holiday Community Guidelines

For all members (and a trusted adult) to read before the holiday!

 What Makes GodStuff Youth Holiday special?

A Typical Day:

 Wake up & Breakfast

 Main Meeting

 Morning Activities

 Lunch

 Afternoon Activities

 Tea Break

 Seminar (some days)

 Evening Activities

 Supper

 Prayer Meeting

 Main Meeting

 Late Night Fun

 Dorm Groups & Bedtime

“It’s like going on a holiday but it’s also different.”

“It’s not about simply attending – it’s about being part of a community.”

And don’t forget the swimming pool and off-site trips!

What We Promise You:

-  Respect & care from the Team
-  Clear expectations & boundaries
-  A fun, safe & inclusive environment
-  Delicious food (catering for all diets)
-  Clean, comfy rooms & facilities
-  Fun activities (crafts & sports)

What We Expect From You:

-  Listen and follow instructions
-  Attend community times (meals and meetings)
-  Sleep is really important - go to bed, respect lights out, be quiet when asked
-  Washing up (on a rota)
-  Respect room boundaries
-  Look after site and environment
-  Stay in groups when off-site
-  Look after belongings
-  Use kind/respectful language
-  No alcohol
-  No illegal substances
-  No smoking/vaping on site

Joining the Community

By joining GodStuff Youth Holiday, you commit to these Community Guidelines and to helping create a respectful, inclusive and fun Youth Holiday for everyone.

If you fail to follow the expectations in this code, it may lead to the removal of privileges, like going off-site or joining in with activities.

In serious cases, it could result in being sent home from the Youth Holiday.

In serious situations, parents/carers agree to collect the member (or send a responsible adult to collect them) on the same day, or the next morning if it is too late to travel safely.